MEETINGS OF THE COUNCIL

1. The purpose of meetings of Instow Parish Council is to exercise the powers and obligations of the Council conferred on it by relevant legislation in the best interests of Instow parishioners.
2. Meetings of the Council will be held at the Parish Hall, Instow, or such other place as may from time to time be determined by the Council.
3. The Annual Meeting of the Council shall be held on the third Thursday in May at 7.30 pm.
4. In addition to the Annual Meeting of the Council, and any extraordinary meetings convened in accordance with Standing Order 5, meetings for the transaction of general business (ordinary meetings) will be held at 7.30 pm on the third Thursday of each month except August (when there will be no meeting) and December when it will normally take place on the second Thursday of the month.
5. Extraordinary meetings of the Council may be called by the Clerk at the request of the Chairman of the Council or at the written request of any two councillors. The business conducted at an extraordinary meeting shall be restricted to the item(s) specified in the request for the extraordinary meeting and there shall be no consideration of any other business.
6. Meetings shall be open to the public unless their presence is prejudicial to the public interest by reason of the confidential nature of the business to be transacted or for other special reasons. The public's exclusion from part or all of a meeting shall be by a resolution of the Council which shall give reasons for the public's exclusion.
7. Notice of each meeting including the time, place and agenda shall be given to councillors and to the public a minimum of three clear days before the meeting.
8. When a meeting of the Council has been continued until 9.30 in the evening and its business remains unfinished any unfinished business shall be postponed until the next ordinary meeting unless a majority of members present and voting shall determine to continue the meeting or adjourn it to some other specified day.

COUNCILLORS

9. In these Standing Orders, the term "members" refers to councillors.

 - (c) making informed contributions which influence debates on the business that needs to be decided at those meetings
 - (d) voting on resolutions at those meetings without bias after giving careful consideration to the arguments put forward in the debates.
11. A councillor who wishes to put forward a matter for consideration or to propose a motion at a meeting should notify the Clerk at least five clear days before the meeting. If the wording or subject of a proposed motion is considered improper, the Clerk will consult the chairman of the meeting to consider whether the resolution will be included in the agenda or rejected, and the Clerk's decision shall be final.
12. All members must observe Instow Parish Council's Members' Code of Conduct whenever they are engaged in the Council's business or the business of an office to which they have been elected or appointed by the Council, or are acting as a representative of the Council. A copy of the Council's Members' Code of Conduct is provided to all Councillors on appointment. A copy is also available on the Parish Council website.
13. A member who has a personal interest in a matter to be considered at a meeting shall declare that interest but may then take part in debate and vote on that matter.
14. Unless he/she has been granted a dispensation, a member shall withdraw from a meeting when it is considering a matter in which he/she has a disclosable pecuniary interest and may not vote on that matter. He/she may return to the meeting after it has considered the matter in which he/she has the interest.

15. (a) The Clerk will retain a copy of each member's "Register of Financial and Other Interest" forms, which are included in the Council's Publication Scheme.

(b) The Clerk will record in the minutes of each meeting particulars of any notice given by any member or any officer of the Council of any interest in a matter that forms part of the business of the meeting.
16. Communications to and between members, including summonses to meetings, agenda and Council documents, may be made by email. To ensure confidentiality, each member is required to have an email facility protected by a password known only to the member. Documents that are to be considered at a meeting and which are circulated to all members by email at least three days before the meeting may be "treated as read" at the meeting.
17. Councillors may hold informal meetings from time to time, in particular to discuss procedural issues. There is no obligation for these informal meetings to be held in public. It is for the participants to decide among themselves whether the proceedings of such meetings are to be kept confidential.

72. PUBLIC PARTICIPATION AT PARISH COUNCIL MEETINGS:

Meetings of the Parish Council are not public meetings but members of the public have a statutory right to attend meetings of the council as observers. They have no legal right to speak unless the Parish Council Chairman authorises them to do so. However, as part of its community engagement, Parish Councils can set out a time for public participation at an agreed time when members of the public are invited to speak. Members of the public should not be involved in the decision-making of the Council. The Council should not make any instant decisions at the behest of members of the public on items that are not included in the agenda. As a matter of best practice the public forum will be kept separate from the debate of the councillors. If matters raised are not on the agenda for the meeting these can be used to form part of the agenda for a future meeting at the discretion of the Council. Members of the public are welcome to stay for the Council meeting after the public session as observers, but will not be able to join in the discussion.

Members of the public may be excluded by a resolution of the meeting for specific items which need to be discussed in confidence (e.g. staffing matters, tenders for contracts, some legal issues).

RULES FOR THE PUBLIC SESSION:

- The Public session will be limited to 15 minutes and the time for each member of the public to speak is limited to 1 minute.
- The Chairman has the right to say that any question or statement is inappropriate and will not be accepted.
- Neither Councillors nor the Clerk should be put under pressure to respond immediately to comments made under public participation. Members of the public do not have a right to force items onto the council agenda nor to insist on how matters are recorded in the minutes.
- A question raised by a member of the public during a public speaking session shall not require a response and there should be no debate or discussion between the Council and the public.
- If the issue is on the agenda then it will be discussed under the appropriate item. Members of the public are therefore requested to leave their contact details with the Clerk before leaving the Council meeting if they wish to receive a reply to their query.
- Please note that offensive or threatening behaviour will not be tolerated. If a member of the public interrupts the proceedings of any meeting the Council reserves the right to curtail the contribution of that person and exclude a disorderly person.
- All person's present will act respectfully towards every other person present and will not act in a manner that demeans, insults, threatens or intimidates him or her. All statements, questions and responses, challenges to statements, complaints or criticisms must be made politely.
- All statements, questions and responses must be related to the facts of the matter and not be personal in nature. There should be no reference to personal views on any person.
- If more than one member of the public wishes to speak on the same topic then they should nominate one person to speak on their behalf. This will avoid duplication and make the best use of the public participation period.
- Written statements must be received by the Clerk at least 3 days prior to the meeting.

REPORTING ON MEETINGS

73. The Clerk shall afford to the press reasonable facilities for reporting the proceedings of any meeting at which they are entitled to be present.
74. A person present at a meeting of the Parish Council or its committees may not report orally or comment about the meeting as it takes place but is otherwise permitted to report on the meeting and such reporting may include:
 - (a) filming, photographing or making an audio recording of the meeting,
 - (b) using any other means to enable persons not present to see or hear proceedings at the meeting as it takes place or later,
 - (c) reporting or commenting on the proceedings in writing during or after the meeting or orally reporting or commenting after the meeting.
75. Reporting or recording shall not be permitted during any part of any meeting when the public and press have been temporarily excluded.
76. The Council has adopted North Devon Council's protocol on recording/filming at Council meetings, which is incorporated in the following rules (the word recording includes both audio and visual recording):
 - (a) Anyone wishing to record at a meeting should inform the Chairman or the Clerk before recording commences. The recording must be clearly visible to everyone at the meeting and must not disrupt proceedings.
 - (b) The Chairman of the meeting has absolute discretion to stop or suspend recording if, in his/her opinion, continuing to do so would prejudice proceedings or if the person recording is in breach of these rules.
 - (c) During any period when the public and press have been excluded from the meeting anyone recording should leave the room ensuring that all equipment has been turned off.

(d) Any member of the public has the right not to be recorded. Anyone not wishing to be recorded must advise the Chairman at the earliest opportunity.

(e) When reports or recordings are released to the public, this shall be done in such a way as to put the matter reported in context and to present a balanced account of comments and arguments made at the meeting. A recording should not be edited in a way that could lead to misinterpretation or misrepresentation of the proceedings or that ridicules or shows a lack of respect for those in the recording.

MAKING INFORMATION AVAILABLE TO THE PUBLIC

77. In accordance with the requirements of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA) the Council has established a publication scheme on its website (www.InstowParish.com) to provide information about the Council. This information appears under the following headings:

- (a) Councillors, Council officers and their roles
- (b) Council meetings
- (c) Policies, procedures and regulations
- (d) Financial information
- (e) Plans, reports and recommendations
- (f) The Council's services

78. The FOIA entitles members of the public to have access to "information held by public authorities", although there are exceptions. The procedure for obtaining information held by the Parish Council is to request this from the Clerk, who will check whether there are valid reasons why the information should not be released and, if not, will provide the information. Individual councillors are not entitled to release Council information to the public or to discuss Council matters with parishioners or other members of the public unless these matters have already been made public.

79. In most cases letters, emails and other communications between councillors do not constitute information held by the Parish Council and are not covered by the FOIA. In accordance with the usual convention, such communications may only be passed on to another person with the permission of the originator of the communication. Exceptions arise when communications relate to tasks that the councillor has been asked by the Council to perform or when the councillor is acting on behalf of the Council, for example in executive or administrative functions. The provisions of the FOIA then apply.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION AND CONFIDENTIAL BUSINESS

80. Information held by the Council with a view to its publication at some future date is exempt from the provisions of the FOIA. This may be taken to include draft documents (in particular drafts of reports, minutes, accounts, proposals and contracts), which shall remain confidential until such time as they are presented for approval at a meeting of the Council or a committee. However, if the Council so decides, a draft of the minutes of a meeting of the Council or a committee, after being approved by the chairman of the meeting concerned and clearly identified as a draft, may be published before being approved by the Council or committee in order to provide timely information to parishioners.

81. No member of the Council or any committee shall disclose to any person not a member of the Council any document or other information relating to the business of the Council that is deemed to be confidential by these Standing Orders.

82. Councillors and staff shall not disclose confidential or sensitive information which for special reasons would not be in the public interest.

LIAISON WITH COUNTY AND DISTRICT COUNCILLORS

83. A notice of meeting shall be sent together with an invitation to attend to the County Councillor for the Division and to the District Councillor for the ward.
84. Unless the Council orders otherwise, a copy of each letter ordered to be sent to the County or District Council shall be transmitted to the County Councillor for the Division or to the District Councillor for the ward as the case may require.

PLANNING APPLICATIONS

85. (a) The local planning authority is North Devon Council (NDC). A record is to be kept by the Clerk of every planning application notified by NDC to the Council, to include:
- (i) The name of the applicant
 - (ii) The place to which it relates
 - (iii) A summary of the nature of the application.
 - (iv) The date of receipt
- (b) The Clerk shall circulate each planning application to a planning working group comprising the Chairman, the Vice-Chairman and two other members within seven days of receiving it. The working group will review the application and recommend to the Council that a response be made to the NDC Planning Department either:
- (i) recommending approval of the application, or
 - (ii) recommending that the application be rejected, or
 - (iii) recommending that the application be approved only on certain stated conditions.
- (c) When the Council's views have to be transmitted to NDC before the next regular meeting of the Council, if the working group concludes that there are objections to the application, either the Clerk will be asked to apply for an extension of time or, if the Chairman or a majority of the Council so decides, an extraordinary meeting of the Council will be called for the purpose of considering the planning application.
- (d) The recommendation of the Council and the decision of the planning authority will be recorded in the minutes of the next Council meeting.

CONTRACTS - LEASE OF BEACH MOORINGS AND INVITATION FOR TENDERS FOR BEACH CLEANING AND OTHER CONTRACTED WORKS

86. (a) At a time to be determined by the Council, the Clerk shall give at least three weeks' notice of the intention to lease the beach moorings and to invite tenders. These notices shall be displayed in the same manner as public notices of meetings of the Council and in such newspapers as the Council shall direct.
- (b) The notice shall state the general nature of the intended contract and shall in addition state the name and address of the person to whom tenders are to be addressed and the last date by which those tenders should reach that person in the ordinary course of post.
- (c) If no tenders are received or if all the tenders are identical or if there is a need for works to be arranged at short notice the Council may make such arrangements for procuring the goods or materials or executing the works as it thinks fit.

SUSPENSION, VARIATION AND REVIEW OF STANDING ORDERS

87. All or part of a Standing Order, except one that incorporates mandatory statutory requirements, may be suspended by resolution in relation to the consideration of an item on the agenda for a meeting.
88. A motion to add to or vary or revoke one or more of the Council's Standing Orders, except one that incorporates mandatory statutory requirements, shall require that written notice be given to the Clerk at least five clear days before the meeting at which it is to be proposed.
89. The Standing Orders should be reviewed in the second year of each Council's four-year term of office. The date of the review should be noted on the Standing Orders.

STANDING ORDERS TO BE GIVEN TO MEMBERS

90. A copy of these Standing Orders shall be given to each member by the Clerk upon delivery to him/her of the member's declaration of acceptance of office.
